

Way of Pont Croix

The Breton Association has marked a departure from Pont-Croix to join the Way of Point Saint Mathieu in Elliant.

The guide of the Way of Pont-Croix, which describes the three steps to reach Pont Croix in Elliant, is available for download in PDF format (french only). It includes the description of the route, maps, as well as elements of history and heritage. The current version will be completed gradually.

In addition, by clicking on the links below, you will access:

- route sheets describing the itinerary of each stage,
- accommodation lists,
- maps of the route of the stage.

The Route Sheets

Below you will find the itineraries of the Way of Pont-Croix. The information on markup rules is HERE.

By clicking on the name of the step, you will display on your screen the description requested in a new tab. On this new page, using the button below the header image, on the right of the screen you can either:

- directly print the information displayed;
- download the page in PDF format. (in the "Downloads" directory of your computer).

To return to the starting page, just close the tab.

You can also consult on your screen the map of the stage, by clicking on the triskel at the end of each line. The map provided by the Openrunner site opens in a new tab. Then choose the format of the card - including IGN - which suits you after clicking on the 3 diamonds at the top right of the card. (For this operation, you will be asked to create an account at Openrunner). Different services are offered to you including the export of the trace in GPS format. (at the bottom of the screen)
